

Rose Mary Parsons

December 4, 1927 - July 8, 2007

Rose Mary Parsons, of Clinton Township, passed away Sunday; July 8, 2007 at Bon Secour Hospital in Grosse Pointe, Michigan. She was born December 4, 1927 in Ecorse, Michigan. Loving wife of the late John E. Sr. Dearest mother of John E. (Marsha) Parsons and James M. (Carol) Parsons. Loving grandmother of Jennifer, Christopher, Matthew and Leslie. Dear sister of Marjorie Keery.

Previous Events

Service

JUL 11. 9:30 AM (ET)

St. Martin de Porres
31555 Hoover
Warren, Mi

Tribute Wall

“ Try to bear in mind that gambling is not a one way street.##imported-begin##WagPlulgerags##imported-end##

December 18, 2007 at 06:10 PM

“ Jim, Carol, John, Marsha, Jennifer and Chris. My deepest sympathy goes out to you. The greatest memory I have of Aunt Rose was when she first got the sable. I asked her if I could take for a spin. At first she looked at me like I was crazy, laughed for a minute and said oh what the heck (we all know what she really said). Of course I was only 15 and just had got my permit. We cracked up for the whole 5 mins. I love her dearly and miss her dearly but she's in a better place now, back with Uncle Jack and the rest of the family. I love you and will miss you dearly Aunt Rose.##imported-begin##Jaclyn Hardwick##imported-end##

July 12, 2007 at 08:20 AM

“ Jimmy Carol Johnny And Marsha
MY heart goes out to all of you. Just remember all the good times we got to share with your mom she was the best. Just remember when she would crack up laughing for no reason that laugh was the best. I will miss her and her spunk she is with uncle Jack now and I am sure that makes her very happy. Shes laughing again.##imported-begin##becky and randy##imported-end##

July 11, 2007 at 06:44 AM

“ My deepest sympathy tp you Jimmy, Carol, Johnny and Marsha. I have great memories of Aunt Rose. I know we will all miss her.##imported-begin##Jeremy Hardwick##imported-end##

July 10, 2007 at 11:54 PM

“ To the Parson family, (Uncle Jimmy, Aunt Carol, Jennifer, and Chris):

My deepest condolences to all. I am conflicted in my happiness and sadness over the passing of Rose. All she seemed to long for was to be with John, and all I can do is thank god for reuniting them finally. The other side of me feels sadness for the loss of a truly genuine and loving person. Rose holds a strong place in my heart like a third grandmother. Her passing helps remind us what is most important; family! I hope that the memories you have are shared from one generation to the next as I will do the same. As we all move on in our lives from day to day, it is people like Rose that have played a part in molding us into who we are today. From the family gatherings in her backyard back in the day to the surprise visit at our Clinton Township residence, they are all still vivid in my heart. I wish that I could have been there in body as I was for John, but I am in Georgia now. I have taken this time to write my memories down to honor her passing. Rose always showed me that sarcasm could be subtle yet humorous; especially when no one knew she was being sarcastic except for those involved in the joke. Rose always had her opinions and pride. If I have learned anything from her, it has been these two things: You have to have a sense of humor for life. And no one can take away your self worth and pride. Rose was one of the strongest people I knew. She will always carry a special place in my life and heart.

Love,

Your Godson
Scott

We need to reunite soon! Rose would want that!

July 10, 2007 at 09:59 PM

“ Jimmy, Carol, Johnny and Marsha,
We have truly lost a loving and caring lady in our lives. However let us remember all the fun we shared together. The trips to the sand dunes...and I will always love "My Aunt Rose" and her liver and onions, that she would cook when I would stayover for a weekend.##imported-begin##Tim and Cindy Lash##imported-end##

July 10, 2007 at 07:11 PM

“ Jim and Carol, John and Marsha;

We are so sorry to for your loss. We have some fond memories of times growing up with Aunt Rose and Uncle John - like the time of picking pears from the tree in your back yard. Fun times when her and her sibilings got together. Her laugh and sense of humor - she will be truly missed.##imported-begin##Tim and Lisa Frasier##imported-end##

July 10, 2007 at 09:58 AM

“ Dear John (Marsha), Jimmy (Carol)

This is 1 awesome woman who will be missed dearly. I loved Aunt Rose like she was my own mother.
They have pulled her up a chair at grandmas big round table. Now shes at peace. All i have is wonderful memories of a fine lady.
I love you Aunt Rose-Bud##imported-begin##Tina & Joe Strong##imported-end##

July 09, 2007 at 06:56 PM