“ I will miss you dearly cousin. I will never forget all our wonderful adventures together. From Port Clinton to Cedar Point and fishing with captain bob. Wrestling with the cousins when we were young and teaching me how to play Nintendo for the first time. I will keep your memories close to my heart and smile when I think of you.
Love ya Ross, Kates

“ I have just met Ross a few weeks ago when I was starting to work at Kroger. He has shown me everything there was to be a successful bagger. I am completely shocked by his death and my condolences go to his family and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolence. After reading the Guest Book in behalf of Ross, I can see that he was a lovely person and that he will be missed by all of you. Being a Bible reader I have found comfort knowing that death was never God's purpose and that He and Jesus will end death in the near future. (John 11:25, 26) First Corinthians 15:26 says “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.” Jesus himself gave way to tears and groaned when his friend Lazarus died before he resurrected him. (John 11:35-44) I hope that you and your family will draw comfort from our loving Father through his word the Bible. He truly is ...“the God of all comfort”... 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

“ Our prayers go out to Ross and your family. Our paths crossed with you at Krogers maybe 13 years ago. We laughed a lot, and when you dressed up as a clown, my daughter 3 at the time freaked out. You were so sad that she was scared and tried to comfort her. It was a pleasure knowing you and just small talk conversion. Rest in peace. You were a funny and serious man.
