

Rowena Lenhausen

May 22, 1935 - October 23, 2021

Rowena Lenhausen, 86, died Saturday in her New Baltimore home.

Rowena was a retired English teacher at Anchor Bay High School. She also was the unofficial grammarian for the late night crew at the Detroit Free Press. When the copy desk chief editor got stuck on a grammar point, he would call Rowena. She would give him the answer and then, always the teacher, would recite the rule.

Rowena is survived by her husband, Don and 8 children, Brett (Tammi), Rhett (Debbie), Julie, Cabrelle (Rob) Phelps, Greta (Kevin) Furlong, Jack (Amanda Saponaro), Sara (Dean) Jobes, Karla (Steve) Hagemann, 23 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. A memorial will be held Friday, October 29th with a service at 4:30 pm and visitation from 5:00 pm-8:00 pm at Little Camille's By The Green in Casco, Michigan.

“ I had the honor of doing Rowena's hair for years. She was always just so cool. Coming in with her leather pants or other stylish outfit, always perfect nails and asking for something really fun and wild with her hair. She truly wore it all. Always said do whatever you want and actually meant it! Leopard, blue and the tinsel hair. So brave and confident. She inspired so many ladies to come in from other states after seeing her on our facebook so many times. She got a kick out of being facebook famous when they recognized her. I loved her stories of her dog, travel and family. I was so fortunate to get one on one time with this incredible woman. I will miss her❤️

“ My son, Jake, had Rowena for his high school English classes. She really taught him how to write well. I have thought over and over what a blessing it was for him to have her because he now writes many papers as a professor of civil engineering and researcher. His writing needs to be accurate and clear. Thank you, Rowena! I also thought Rowena raised some beautiful children. I remember Sara when I taught music and because she was so sweet, I named my daughter Sarah. May God be with each one of Rowena's family members and friends. I know she will be greatly missed.

“ My first memory of Mrs. Lenhausen was as a gymnastics instructor. She was always patient, kind and encouraging. I had so much fun when Julie invited me to stay the night; Mrs. Lenhausen was always awake reading a book. She was a great role model for life long learning. Thank you Mrs. Lenhausen, Rest In Peace.

“ Mrs. Lenhausen was my English and Japanese teacher; which shows how tremendously talented she was. But the care she showed her students is why there are so many powerful memories we have of her. She was the epitome of a teacher and a beautiful person.

“ Oh how sorry I am for the family. Ms Lenhausen was a favorite of mine while going to ABHS. My senior year I had asked her to write a letter of recommendation for me to get into college. While I ended up not going to college until after the Army, I did benefit from the hand written letter of positivity and support of me that has helped shape who I am today. She was the definition of a great teacher. I'm certain she will be missed by many.

“ My first memory of Rowena was when I was only 21 years old and teaching French at Anchor Bay Jr. High School. Her daughter Julie was in my class and volunteered her mom to make French onion soup for our quarterly French potluck with parents. I remember that night like it was yesterday. I complimented Rowena on her soup, and she admitted to me that it was the first time she had ever made it --and also that it wasn't that easy to make! But, that's the kind of person she was: one who tried new things, persevered and made them happen. Rest in Peace , Rowena! My most sincere condolences to Don and your entire family! Sincerely, Debbie Benedic
