“ My deepest sympathy to you and your family Dolores. I just heard about your loss today 4/4/7 and was so shocked. My prayers are with you and your family. You are going through so much, but know that you were both blessed to have each other in your lives. If I would have know sooner I would have definitely paid my respects. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Fondly,

“ Delores and family,

Please receive our love and prayers from Arizona. Russ was a good buddy, a smiling face, a courageous soul, and God's beloved son. We know that he is rejoicing in the presence of God today. We also know that you are shedding tears and hurting in the deepest parts of your being. Just as Russ has gone to be with God, God will come to be with you to touch your grieving heart with His love and peace.

We will be home this weekend and hope to be able to give you a hug when we see you at church.

What hope we have through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord!

Love,

Jake & Dianne Jacobsen###imported-begin##Jake & Dianne Jacobsen###imported-end##

“ Please accept our condolences. A few scriptures that we've found very encouraging when we've lost a loved one are John 5:28,29, 1Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:3,4, and Psalms 37:10,11,29. May these wonderful promises that we have to look forward to, your special memories and the love of your friends and family comfort you in this difficult time.
