Tribute Wall

“ To Dave, Mike, Renee and all your family, accept our sincere sympathy and condolences on the loss of your mom, grandmother, and great-grandmother. I'll always remember my Aunt "Diane" as someone who entertained us with her laughter and sense of humor. She also spoke boldly of her love for her Savior, Jesus Christ. I know she is smiling down upon us now in Heaven! God Bless you all in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Ron and Sharon Reed and Family##imported-end##

“ Hi my name is Shaunta. i did not personally know the person the has passed away, but i wanted to share some encouraging thoughts from the bible to help you to cope. One thing that helps me to deal is what is being brought out in Ecclesiastes 9:5, and John 11:11. Those scriptures bring out how those who have died, are not conscious of anything, and how they are at rest, sleeping. they are no longer going through any pain, they have no negative thoughts, or positive, and are just a rest. Some people grieve because they wish they could tell the person one last thing, or could hold them one last time. The bible tells us at John 5:28,29 " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs(dead ones) will hear my voice, and will come out". Isn't this a time to look forward too? A time when we will see our dead loved ones again. Again, i am sorry about your loss. Its normal to go through a grieving process and take the time to do so. If you have Any questions about the bible, what happens at death , or how to cope, feel free to write me at ShauntaBraxton@yahoo.com##imported-begin##Shaunta Braxton##imported-end##
