“ I have been looking for Ruth for years. She use to babysit my twins Alexander and Marcus for years (they are 19 now). We loved her and she always took such good care of them.
I knew there must have been a reason she didn't call or come by.

She is missed. I'm so disappointed that I'm just acknowledging her passing.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Ruth's passing. I was lucky to see her last November when I was in Michigan. We had so much fun in high school. She was a wonderful person - my "cuz" as we called each other. The nuns thought we were cousins. That way she could come home with me. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
