“Wherever Two or More of You are Gathered There Will I be”
This scripture reminds me of the Kava home on Yacht Street ...
Uncle Frankie and Aunti Sabina’s home. It was never too early, or too late to stop in.....and any event and anytime was a good reason for a gathering.
Aunt Sabina would open the door and greet you with that GREAT big and bright smile.
You were always welcome.....out came the Drinks, and food....
ham, lunchmeat,
sandwich fixings, ginger ale, cocktails, coffie, coffie cake...you name it, there is was, to be shared by all. Many parties and good times took place.
Mike’s Christening is where the family met Lenny for the first time.
Someone handed him a bottle of beer, and Uncle Carl thought he was Italian....because of the dark hair. Len was in the Air Force, and....also, because he worked for an Auto Co. he and Uncle Frankie were buddies for life.....remember Uncle Frank walked around with his tool box, always ready to fix a car.
As we started to raise our family’s, our kids went on to Graduate from the same High School, at St Clement’s, in CenterLine.....could go on and on but those of you who were there too, can recall these same memories of good times.
In closing let me say, “nobody could fill up a roaster with to die for golambki”, like Aunt Sabina.
“Smacznego”
Love you and miss you.

“ Our deepest and heartfelt sympathies go out to all of you. Bob and I are really sorry that we cannot be there with you during your time of sorrow. We have included Sabina and your family in our prayers. Sabina's death has no doubt cast a shadow over you as you go about your daily life. Her presence will be dearly missed. She is now with God in a better place with her suffering gone. God bless you and may He watch over you in the days to come.##imported-begin##Bob & Pauline Saltsman##imported-end##

“ What a lovely lady Sabina Kava was. It truly was an honor to know her and her family at our beloved home parish of Ascension. One of her great legacies is her family - her goodness and faith continues through them.

Love will always be bridge between them. May she continue to be a living presence!##imported-begin##Judy Holmes##imported-end##

“ You were a vibrant and beautiful lady. You inspired everyone around you with your positive and cheery attitude about life. Both Tom & I are very proud to have met you and to have been apart of your life. The Polish Heritage that you were very proud of and have instilled in your children is a wonderful compliment to you their mother that they will carry on and pass on to their children.##imported-begin##Tom & Donna Skurski##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the entire Kava family. I will always remember Grandma Kava coming to Joan's house and preparing her delicious Polish food either for a large celebration or a family event. (The Golabki had to be the perfect size and the cabbage leaves had to be tucked in just right!!!) I will always have fond memories of her strength, dedication to her family, sensitivity, and spitual values. Her physical presence will be missed by all.##imported-begin##Shirley Boore##imported-end##
