Sweet Tranquility Basket - September 01, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ When I first met Sally I realized her physical nature and demeanor was simply a reflection of her inner beauty. She was an original, soft spoken, kind, patient and nurturing. When she found something funny her laughter echoed through the hallways. Over the course of 25 years working together she never disappointed ultimately teaching me the finer points of being a good Superintendent. The memory of those years will always be met with a smile. I know she is now with the Lord and most likely already the Angel Office Manager.
