“ Dear Briguglio Family,

I have tried to write this not since I got the news of Uncle Sams passing (the only father figure I knew). He gave all of us so much but I will remember the laughter and how he loved me like is own. This time of mourning has been hard for all of you but remember for all the years we were lucky enough to have him was a true blessing.

Uncle Sam was the first person I lost after my grandfater in 1974 to honestly know what it might feel like to lose my father.

I love each and evryone of you and know that no matter what life brings I will always be here for you.

Rememeber the smiles the laughter but mostly the love he gave all of you.

With all my love

“ Nancy and Family - Your beloved father knowing that his dear family was with him as he passed into the arms of God had to be the greatest gift of love you could ever give to him in his final moments. We cannot express enough how deeply sorry we are for your loss. Thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this sad time. Find comfort in the fact that he was loved by so many and will always be lovingly remembered. He left a legacy of love to all who knew him.

“ We share your sorrow at this time & hold dear in our hearts memories of our precious Uncle Sam. Always, I will remember learning from him to love Italian opera. Invited to your home for summer vacation as a teenager resulted in a love of "Italian" music, food, culture & most of all--people. We will celebrate his life and imitate his desire to bring laughter into every day of our lives.##imported-begin##Catherine Weaver##imported-end##

“ When I think of Uncle Sam...I smile! I remember how funny Uncle Sam was at our family reunion. Because we were in a park, visiting the "facilities" required a discrete trip "down the path". Uncle Sam, megaphone in hand, couldn't pass up announcing to the world who was "going" next. He was a delightful human being and will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Chris Ciccone##imported-end##
