

Sam Joseph Hakim, Sr.

September 18, 1955 - November 21, 2025

Sam Joseph Hakim, Sr., beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother and cherished St. Clair Shores Lebanese deli owner, passed away peacefully Friday, November 21, at Henry Ford St. John Hospital. He was 70.

Affectionately known as "Big Sam" or "Papa Sam," he was a man whose generosity and larger-than-life presence touched anyone who crossed his path. Everyone knew him as the owner of Emily's Delicatessen "Home of the Meat Pie," and his influence stretched far beyond Michigan's state lines. No matter where he traveled, someone passing by would proudly recognize him as "Sam from Emily's." The encounters always brought a smile to his face and a story he couldn't wait to share when he returned home.

Through the store, which he ran alongside his mother, Emily, Sam became a community pillar and local legend. He dedicated his life to serving others with hospitality and the signature smile that friends and customers came to love. And to many, he was far more than the owner of Emily's—he was a mentor, a father figure, and a friend, and his impact on the lives of others was truly profound and enduring.

Most enduring was his devotion to his family. He absolutely adored his late wife, Mary Jane, and cherished her beyond words. And through great sacrifice and an unmatched work ethic, he ensured all five sons received strong educations at Catholic schools and later in college. Nothing made him prouder than his sons' achievements or when Sam Jr. started working at the store with him. Sam's commitment to his family remains one of his greatest legacies.

Sam Joseph Hakim, Sr. will forever be remembered for his generosity, his laughter, his smile, his unshakeable work ethic, and his love for family. Sam was predeceased by his loving wife, Mary Jane; his parents Joseph and Emily Hakim, his brother Maroun (Lidwina), and his sister Emma (Paul) Bochenek. He is survived by his brother Roy (Tammy) and by his sisters, Mary "Tootsie" (Allan) Brazier and Joann (Michael) Carpenter; his sons Joseph, Matthew, Anthony "A.J." (Courtney), Sam Jr. (Michelle) and Christopher (Teresa); nine grandchildren and 18 nieces and nephews.

“ I've known Sam for quite a while. My mother knew his mother Emily from the old days, prior to opening the store, and Sam told me she would go in the kitchen to talk to Emily when she came in the store. Whenever I stopped in the store, there was always a friend or two of Sam's, just talking and joking with Sam. One time one of the guys said, "Gee, Sam, I've been here for an hour and I haven't bought anything." Sam said, "You don't have to buy anything. You just have to come in." Those were good words, a good way to live.

“ So sad to have heard of Sammy's passing. Our families were once close as Emily & Joe were good friends of our parents, Paul & Mary. Emily was a beautiful and kind woman, her smile & natural kindnesses were evident in Sammy. Always a kind word, a sweet guy, hard working, loving. My heart goes out to his family and friends who will surely feel his absence.

“ Sammy and Family:

I've known Sam for the past 40 years. He was a good friend and I could always count on him to start picking on the State Police every time I visited the store. Sam always had an interesting story to tell and was very proud of all his children and their successes. He especially was proud that you planned to take over the store and keep the "Emily's" tradition going. One of my favorite memories is stopping by the store one cold winter day, and Sam sending us home with meat pies just out of the oven. Sam's personality was bigger than life and we will miss his contagious smile.

“ Saint Clair Shores has lost a wonderful resident, businessman, husband and father, I will always remember that smile of his when you enter his store on Mack in SCS. Sam was one of those guys, who would do anything for you. You could always tell he loved his customers and would remember their names. Again, humanity has lost one of its most precious gifts, Sam Hakim. Sammy may you rest in peace.
