“ In the few months that I spent with Sam working, she was always smiling. She had such a kind soul. We talked about her struggles and her triumphs. I will always remember her and share what she taught me about life. I will never forget that bright smile that lit up the room. Samantha will never be forgotten by the people who cared for her. I'll keep her family and friends in my thoughts, especially around the holidays.

If we can learn anything about her tragic death, we can all remember to fight our inner demons and try to help those who seek it. Don't judge people based on their actions or their past, but try to see the good in them. Be supportive of those who ask for help and try to understand that sometimes, the candle burns too quickly. For Sam, her flame went out far too soon, but her light will continue to shine on all of us.

Keep smiling, Sam.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Folan family. There is know words to express the lost of a child. May you be comforted by the memories you've shared and in the promise found at Psalms 34:18" Jehovah(God's personal name) is near to those that are broken at heart. And those crushed in spirit he saves." Keeping the family in my thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely, Glenda
