“ Sam, I remember when we took you and the boys with us to Great wolf Lodge, You were just at a tender age of 9. As a mom i enjoyed watching you boys have so much fun at the waterpark. It really felt like heaven. I am forever grateful that moment in time and you were part of it. I prayed for you and your family for this truly breaks our hearts and many others. May the LORD bring peace as this season pass of mourning for you. It is devastating. You are so loved and will be missed.

“ I've known Samuel since elementary school. I played middle school and high school soccer with Samuel. He took my little sister to freshmen homecoming. I worked with Samuel doing various jobs throughout the years. He was a beacon of light to me in a dark world. He was always supportive of my goals and ambitions and pushed me to achieve them. His wisdom was boundless whether it was his profession, cars, or just life in general. Samuel was always able to see the positive side of any situation and that is something I will carry with me in his honor until the day we meet again. Rest Easy My Friend
