“ *Words will never be able to express the sadness we feel over Sandy's passing. For over 25 years she made our home her own. Her infectious smile and wit were unparalleled. Our son, Grant, was a newborn when Sandy became our friend and she helped Paul and I raise he and his sister, Kirsten. To say that Sandy's presence in our lives will always be felt is an understatement. Heaven gained a new angel— a sassy, classy one!
All our love and prayers, Paul, Lori, Grant and Kirsten*
