“ I will always remember Sandy’s smile, and how much she made me laugh! I will also never forget how caring she was, always putting family first. She and Ed hosted most holidays and many parties, sharing them with family, and often close friends. I really admired Sandy and her family for wanting to care for her Dad in their home while on hospice. He was constantly surrounded by the love and support of this beautiful family. I know in my heart that her Dad, Mom and so many others, are now surrounding Sandy with the love she so richly deserves.

We are truly blessed to have shared our lives with you since elementary school, Sandy!!

“ We would stay up all night watching Golden Girls. She reminded me of Sofia with her sassafras. She was with me through my most scariest times in life and happiest. She helped me raise Maya and help take care of her and spoil her, her little pea picker. She might of not been my biological mother but she was every bit of one to me. I'll miss my long talks with her and visits. I'll miss most her trucker mouth, oh how I loved that about her. Most of all I'll miss how she loved me so unconditionally and always told me every time we hung up the phone or seen each other. And the love she had for my Maya pie. It hurts so bad to write these words and we will forever be grateful for you, Sandy my mother in law and second mama. Thank you for all the joy you brought to our lives. Love you always, Penelope.
