“ I remember the good times I had with my sister, Sandi. She used to make laugh, she had a great sense of humor. When I was young, she would take me places just after she got her driver's license. She was always there for me. Sandi was the best sister anyone could have. We all had fun up @ the lake with family and friends. I know will her for the rest of my life . Buster (Ed) Curnow

Sandi was my sister in law for almost 40 years, although I considered her a Sister. She was fun, good hearted. Sandi was always there for us. Her faith and family were most important to her. I will miss her smile, laugh and the joy of many Thanksgivings @ her house. Love you Sandi. Denise Curnow
