“ Sorry for your lost there is something I would like to share with you , about a promise that Jehovah our God has told us .In regards to what grand things the future holds for us .Imagine a place where there will be no more pain, crying, sorrow, death this is according to his word the bible. At Psalm37:29 these things will be of the past.

“ Dear Suminski Family--I am so sorry for your loss. Your Mother was a great & brave person. I know that you will miss her a lot. In you & your children she has left a wonderful legacy. I am so sorry that I could not come to the funeral. I have just gotten out of the hospital because of back surgery. God bless all of you and give you the strength that she & your Father taught you to carry on. Most sincerely,

“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Sandra J. Suminski. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. The Scriptures contain some practical advice. There is a time to weep according to Ecclesiastes 3: 1, 4. So don't hold back the tears. Remember, they are a natural and necessary part of grieving and even God's Son Jesus Christ wept. The Bible gives us the best comfort during times of grief. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29).

“ Kenny & Bobbi -

It is difficult for me to explain how saddened we were to learn of your mom's passing.

Knowing how much she valued each of you, I can only guess how hard this has been on you and the sorrow your feeling now. Your mom is truly missed. She touched so many.

Your parents became a part of my life, now thirty+ years ago, introduced to me by my sister Diane and her husband Gary. Our families had grown over the years. Your mom had even started helping my daughters with their own taxes (!).

Your mother was one very good person. I so believe that she is standing tall, next to your father and Judy once again. I pray that you will each gain the strength to move forward, concentrating on so many good memories that you shared together.

From my family to yours, "God be with you."

“ *Bobbi & Kenny,
Gary & I loved your Parents for most of your lives. We shared Vacations, Birthdays, Anniversaries, New Year Eves, & many Heartfelt Moments together. You kids and ours, growing up gave your Mom & me a lot of kitchen conversation. I have wonderful memories when I stayed with your Mom, when your Dad was recovering at home. We realized it was since 1964.....we were Close, Good friends. Your Mom will always be my Best Friend....
Love, Gary & Diane*
