“ Sandy Millns, such a SPECIAL LADY, WOMEN, and a FRIEND what can I say? Sandy had the gift to listen, never had a bad thing to say about anyone, she always looked for the good things in anyone or anything. Sandy loved her Husband Steven, and Justin her son, and her family and friends.

A happy go lucky woman, whom touched so many lives! Always with a smile, and such a beautiful smile. With a special twinkle in her eyes, when she talked about Steven, and Justin the two men in her life that she loved and cared for, and loved every minute of it!!!

Sandy touched so many lives, her love for Family, Friends, and Life.

Sandy is one in a million. I feel so blessed to have met her, and have her as a friend!!##imported-begin##Sue Reilly##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure of being the next door neighbor to Sandy and her family for many years. Our children grew up together, we shared many great family times such as birthdays, graduations and of course the best 4th of July's that anyone has ever seen! Sandy was so caring and her love of family was contagious that we always felt like part of her family. I will miss her laugh and great sense of humor.##imported-begin##Kathy Reichmann##imported-end##

“ Every encounter with Sandy was so warm, I knew that she was a very warm and loving woman. Thru out the years and many conversations I learned from her that she really liked to reach out with the branches of an olive tree to represent family. I'll surely miss our times with one another. I'll always cherish those moments & memories that we were able to have.

Love,

“ Dear Sandy,
Although we seen life in different perspectives, the endless conversations we could share could more than fill most others lifetimes, I never ceased to ready for the next yarn we could spin. Give me a ring when you get your heavenly wireless number.
