“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. Be there for each other and remember that God has a plan and reason for everything (as hard as it may be to see at this moment). I will always remember Aunt Sandy with the smile that always greeted me when I walked in the house. The gentle hands that would reach out to my face to raise my eyes to hers to make sure I saw the love that was flowing from them. The children and I still do the hippidy-hop-hop around the house on holidays (minus the turkey leg)and they know it was Aunt Sandy that started it. I wish I could give each of you a hug and help you through the pain that you are feeling (I know it all to well). All my love, Tammy (Frankie and Alie too)###imported-begin###Tammy, Frankie, and Alie Girling###imported-end###

“ “And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to His purpose for them” (Romans 8:28).

May this be a comforting way of saying that God's purpose is in everything that Sandy went through, whether we are able to see it or not. And that purpose produced something good through out her life. We pray you can believe in that at this difficult time.

We all have things in our lives in which it is hard, almost impossible, to see God's purpose. That doesn't mean anything except that we are prone to be short on faith sometimes. That's when we need to keep on believing and knowing that God is at work in our lives, and in His Kingdom where he has made a place for each of us.###imported-begin###Larry and Susan Ray###imported-end###

“ God has a plan for all of us and we often have a very hard time figuring out why He has called a loved one home. We have the faith and we trust that Sandy is in a better place, and we pray that her family and friends will find comfort and peace in knowing that our prayers are being heard. God bless.##imported-begin##Morrison & Debra Ray##imported-end##

Sandra was my sweet daughter-in-law we sure miss you; I know you are enjoying your mansion that Jesus prepared for you: reverend Bill Bennett

Pastor Bill Bennett - June 14, 2019 at 11:29 PM

“ Dear Family of Sandy,
Our deepest sympathies are with all of you at this time of sorrow.
We pray that you find peace and comfort.
I always thought her appearance on Wheel of Forture was unfair,
but leaving us this soon is the real injustice.
We will continue to pray for you.
