February 8, 1961 - April 1, 2018

Sara-Jane Easton (nee Cobb), of Warren, passed away Sunday, April 1, 2018, at the age of 57. She was born February 8, 1961 in Detroit, Michigan. Beloved wife of Timothy. Cherished daughter of Sara (the late Charles) Cobb. Loving stepmother of Christin (Tom) Spears and Courtney Easton. Dearest grandmother of Jestin, Nevaeh, Ethan, and Kayden. Dear sister of David (Vita) Cobb, Terrence (Carolyn) Cobb, Rosalen Cobb, and Rochelle Cobb. Also survived by her loving nieces and nephews; Charles, Salvatore, Kurtis, Serena (Dustin), and Elizabeth (Antonio) and her godmother, Mary (Paul) Blanchard. Sara-Jane was a strong believer of the Catholic faith, and her spirituality drew from Native American customs. She is remembered lovingly by many as "SJ". SJ had a passion for sewing and her family. Therefore, she was appropriately named the thread that held the family fabric together. Her favorite past time was hosting game nights, parties, and holidays, always creating an atmosphere for family bonding and creating memories. No party was complete without her there to turn up the volume! Jokes were never in short supply with SJ around. She always said laughter was the best medicine, and was always prepared to administer a dose. Among her sewing, party hosting, and comedic talents, she had a knack for match making too, bringing numerous couples together. SJ always taught her step daughters, nieces, nephews, and grandsons the importance of family traditions. A few of her favorite traditions were visiting churches on Holy Thursday, 4th of July parties, Thanksgiving dinner with the family, and making cookies for Christmas. To Sara-Jane, family was not determined by blood but by strong connections of love, care, and quality time and to her, most of her friends classified as family by her standards. With that said, many of us loved her unconditionally throughout her lifetime. We were all blessed by being granted this special child of God. Our hearts are full of all the cherished memories we have of you. Rest in heaven dear angel, your journey here on earth is through!! It's not goodbye, for we will see you again.

“ My heart goes out to the Cobb family during this difficult time. I know how close you all are. Your family always kinda reminded me of my own. I'm sure you are feeling a huge hole in your hearts right now. I hope that the many memories you cherish bring you some peace in the coming days and nights. I send each one of you a comforting hug. Your Daughter/Sister/Aunt/Godchild was a special person and I will always remember her with a smile. To Tim, I don't know you, but how blessed you are to have loved, and been loved in return. That, to me, is the essence of life. God bless you dear Sara Jane and may you soar with the Angels~

“ Just when the caterpillar thought the world was at a end. It becomes the Butterfly. I love Sara-Jane Cobb Easton Nature's first green is gold. Her hardest hue to hold. Her early leaf's a flower, But only so an hour. Then leaf subsides to leaf. So Eden sank to grief, So dawn goes down to day. Nothing gold can stay. You are Gold Sara a real treasure. I Miss you Sara-Jane Cobb Easton Thank you for the beautiful memories we shared. I Love You Angel xoxo

“ There are so many wonderful things to be said about you Auntie Sara. You were always there for us nieces and nephews whenever we needed to talk or just hang out. There are so many memories you and I have made together like going to see every movie from the Twilight series in theaters together. Making pierogi's in mine and Tony's first place together, numerous game nights, ghost hunting, so many parties, cooking together for holidays at Grandma's and countless others. My heart just aches right now and even though the ache will ease soon it will never completely go away. There are so many things you won't be able to experience with me here on Earth but I know you will always be with me in spirit. I am grateful for the time I had with you even though it was not enough. These past few years we have gotten so much closer and I will cherish that forever. You helped me forgive a few people who have hurt me and taught me it is ok to forgive I don't have to forget but I can still love. Thank you for everything you have ever done for me and will continue to do for me by being another one of my guardian angels. I am thankful I was there to be able to give you energy and love to help you cross over and meet God and it is something I will forever hold onto and find comfort in knowing you're safe with God, Papa, Uncle Dick, Aunt Marie, Aunt Mick, Aunt Donna and many other loved ones. You are no longer sick Auntie Sara, so use those beautiful purple wings and fly high with the angels and enjoy the beautiful butterflies of heaven. I will see you again one day and when my time comes I hope you are there to help me make my journey heaven. I love you.

Dearest SJ-Baby what am I to do? Every life battle I've had, I always had you. You were my rock you always pulled me through. I'm not sure I can handle this without you by my side. I know it's not for me to question, but I want a reason why! You were the knit in the stitch that kept us all together. My heart is broke and a band-aide won't put it back together. My life is now changed forever. I loved you yesterday, even more today, I will love you forever until my dying day. I pray that your Easter was the best ever with all the love surrounding you, from early morning til God took you away. As I always told you in life, I will tell you in death I will always love you morer then ever did me.
