“ I was blessed enough to be a part of this warm and loving woman's extended family for 20 yrs. My family and I spent 20 amazing Christmas Eves, we shared in each of her 3 granddaughters' (my nieces) birthdays, and celebrations every year with her. In all the celebrations throughout those years she always made me feel like family. She was one of the most loving, giving, and nurturing mothers, grandmothers, and even mothers-in-laws' I have had the please of knowing. There is no doubt she is in Heaven now with the love of her life. Rest in peace Mrs. Scalabrino, you have earned it.

“ I’ve been friends with Cathy since we were in 10th grade. My mom died when we were 18 and life was so difficult for me. Cathy’s parents welcomed me into their home for holidays and during breaks to spend at their house. And with always a full fridge of wonderful food to eat. Mrs Scalabrino was always one of my favorite people. I loved talking with her and making her laugh. We will all miss her. Rest In Peace Mrs Scalabrino. You made all of our lives brighter. ❤️ Michelle Simon

“ Grandma the memories are endless. My childhood making apple pits, chasing Charlie’s, walking to your house, special Christmas eves and Days. Your generous heart, your warm smile and the best hugs. I will miss you tremendously. Please hug Grandpa for me. I love you forever.
