“ Scott, though we had our share of heartaches, I'm so glad we refound the friendship that began our marriage. I miss you and I miss the late night calls when you saw something or thought of something that you wanted to share with me. Thank you for our son, the pride and joy of my life - you will always hold a place in my heart for the gift our union had given us. My memories are, not of the heartaches, but of the love we had shared, the fun we had, the good times. You will always be missed.
