“ We went to High School together but didn't meet until our children started kindergarten, spending many mornings waiting at the bus stop. We have lost a good man. As Kathy said, heaven has an amazing Snow Village now, along with the best collection of Hot Wheels. Our hearts are heavy. The Nelsons, Eric, Laura and Erin.

“ Scott, full of life and always ready for some more. My memories of the spirited kid from the neighborhood... Bald Mountain, Woodward Dream Cruises, boating on St. Clair, races at the Brickyard – these will never be forgotten. You are blessed to have such a caring family that supported you over these last 5 years. Rest in peace my friend.

“ To a wonderful neighbor and friend on McKinley that I had the pleasure of knowing. Without a doubt you were the most loving and devoted father I've ever met. I'll forever hold the special memories of watching you through my window snipping the roses off my bushes and smelling them as you ran back home. Sharing stories and hours of laughter as we watched NASCAR. I missed the flag flying across the street when you moved and will always remember your amazing Christmas village I enjoyed seeing every year. You will always be in my heart and I was blessed to have met you. I believe heaven will now have the most spectacular Christmas village one could ever imagine. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Russell and your loving family. Kathy and Kohl

“ Our hearts are heavy in this sorrowful time and we grieve like he was a part of our family. He always was upbeat during this journey with hardly ever a complaint. He was blessed to have his family so dedicated in making sure he was well taken care of. He provided many laughs, endearing love for his son, gratefulness to his family for their concern and care. There wasn't anything that he wouldn't do for someone if he could. We will always look back at the things he did to make us laugh, the strength he showed and will get through this knowing he is now at peace and with his mom, whom he dearly loved.

Our prayers and deepest sympathy to his family and those that loved him. He will be greatly missed.

“ More than a cousin to me...always a friend. My mom loved you dearly. You created a beautiful, amazing and loving son who I promise I will look after for you. You are painless in Heaven now with your beautiful mother Gloria and my beloved Godfather Felix. You were so wonderful to him in his final months with us and he loved you very much. We celebrate your life as you lived it to its fullest!

“ Although it's been such a long time since Scott and I were together, we shared so many memories. He was my "first love" and he will forever be remembered. He loved his mother so much and I am glad they are together again. Your are in my thoughts, Peggy St. Louis Hagen.
