“ Dear Carter Family,

Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. There are no words that can erase the pain in losing someone so special. May the hope at Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:4 bring a small measure of peace in the days ahead.

“ So sorry for the loss of Shannon... She was such a wonderful person and so good to me as a kid. Years could go by and Shannon would see me next door visiting my cousins and she would always hug me and go swimming with me. Her smile was brighter than the sun...she will be in my heart forever

“ *Dear Family,
Shannon will be sorely missed. She was my first great niece, a wonderful girl, teenager, friend, mother, sister and daughter.....Words can not describe our sorrow in losing her. She will be forever etched in our memories. God Bless you all.
Love to you, Aunt Wanda*

“ To my very Dear Friend Colette and her family! Words can't even begin to express how sorry I am for the loss of Shannon. I know how close of a family you all are and I hope during this difficult time now and every day after you lean on each other for strength to get you thru. You all now have been blessed with the most amazing beautiful guardian angel who will be by your side for eternity. Sending you all my love, support and prayers! Love you so much Colette! xoxo

“ Shanny, all I can say is I am going to miss our chats! The battle to see who can say "Whatever!!!" first, talks about the Red Wings (and Darren McCarty), your visits to Uncle Kracker's for a birthday party, or your stories about "Bob", aka Kid Rock. Yeah, you made me jealous telling me about seeing the Stanley Cup in your neighborhood, too! :-) Most of all, though, I promise to do my part as Tristen's Godfather, to be a part of his life. I know he has excellent support with the your Family....and what a super bunch they are, but I will be sure he never forgets! Love you, God rest you after all those months battling, and I look forward to seeing you again on the other side. Love ya, Sis! Oh and the candle is Blue, cuz I KNOW you lovvvvved the Wolverines. ;-)

“ Dear Colette,
Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loving sister. May her courageous spirit will live in all of you forever. Although these days will be difficult for all of you, please remember that Shannon is at peace with our loving Lord Jesus. She has resurrected with Him in the place of no suffering or sorrow, in His Kingdom of Heaven.

May you and your family find peace and love in the memories you shared with Shannon.

God bless,

Kleo (from the VECC)

“ I remember a lesson that shannon taught me and she did not even mean to. Dan was my friend and Shannon was the big sister with a driver's license and we were 14 or 15. She invited us to Taco Bell and drove. of course this 14 yr old didn't have any money and Shannon did. I did not ask but when she ordered at the drive thru she ordered and paid for me as a matter of generous habit. its weird how these little things can affect somebody's life but I have purchased many meals and drinks for others that just didn't have the money at the time. I will continue to do so. thank you for the meaningful $2.99 28 years ago shannon

My first niece! I remember the day you were born, your Mom sitting on our living room couch waiting for the contractions to be far enough apart to go to the hospital. We were all so excited! I wanted to stay home from school so I was there for every detail.

I spent a lot of time at your house after that. I think I just couldn't get enough of you.

I was so honored the day you called me and asked me to be your baby boys God mother!

I am so blessed that I got to be your Aunt!

I will miss you! I love you!

We shared many cold hockey mornings together..Games, Tournaments,parties.Will never forget how you let me sleep in the back of my pick up after a night out and our experience at Pizza Hut with all the kids and our waiter Peter! Gave birth to 4 beautiful kids who I'm glad that Ive still been a part of there life since you had moved away and still plan on being there for them.We have both been battling health issues for many years, just thought I'd go first.I feel the pain of your kids and your parents as Ive been on both sides.You have a strong loving family and I'm so happy they have each other.R.I.P and look over my Taylor as you to are now together, until we meet again!
