

Sharon Lansky-Loy

February 16, 1943 - December 11, 2021

Sharon Lansky-Loy, of Sterling Heights, passed away Saturday, December 11, 2021, at the age of 78. She was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on February 16, 1943 to the late George and Belle Lansky.

Sharon enjoyed baking. She always remembered her friends on their birthday and she would take great joy to make them a special birthday cake. She was always putting others first and making sure everyone from her kids to her extended family and friends had what they needed. When her kids were young she worked two jobs so that they would have everything they needed. Her family and friends were very important to her and she cherished every minute she spent with them and the memories that were made. She will be greatly missed by her family and dear friends. The values and love that she instilled in them through their lives will carry on with them and be their tribute to her legacy.

Beloved wife of the late Dale. Dear mother of Joann (James) Abbott, Paula (Michael) Rock and Russell (Tonuah) Dunham. Loving grandma of Ryan (Elizabeth), Rachel (Keith), Elijah, Rebecca (Kenneth), Gavin, Trevor (Morgan), Olivia, Lloyd and Morgan. Precious great grandma of Haven, Harold, Amelia and Millie. “ Sharon welcomed me into the family with open arms and treated me like her sister from the day I married Henry. She was funny and loving and will not be forgotten. Be at peace my dear sister.
