“ Expressing deep sympathy in the loss of your mother. She was a wonderful Mom and grandma, I'm sure. Thinking of you all ---know it is hard to lose parents but know she has had many tough years and is now at peace back in your Dad's arms. Remembering the big gray house and how the bats scared your mother----not funny but so funny all in the same breath!! Deepest love and peace to you all---Lynnne

“ Driving around little ceasars parking lot like eight times to watch these people who we thought were "drug dealers." We were in a mini van in Shelby Township. The last time around the lot they were starting to really stare at us. Sharon yelled " oh my god GO!" And we burned rubber all the way out.

This breaks my heart but I can see her smiling with Larry in heaven. Sharon and I were high school friends and young mothers together. I remember when she didn't call when I had my son, later found out, she had Lisa early, and at home and the ER squad had to carry her down steep steps on a stretcher. We had many good times as young couples together too. Talked to her awhile ago and am so sorry I haven't been in touch more often. Am offering prayers for her, your Dad, and your families. She was so proud of her children. You are her legacy. Cherish the memories.
