“ Life is so short, and friendship so precious. She will be missed.

The Dash
by Linda Ellis

*I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning...to the end.*

He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth... and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth.

*For it matters not, how much we own;
the cars....the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.*

*So think about this long and hard... are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left.
(You could be at "dash midrange.")*

*If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real,
and always try to understand the way other people feel.*

And be less quick to anger,

and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect, and more often wear a smile... remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy's being read with your life's actions to rehash... would you be proud of the things they say about how you spend your dash?

“ My deepest sympathies to the Myers family. May you find comfort in the loving memories you shared together and may they warm your heart. When we lose someone close to us we sometimes feel alone and heartbroken, but take comfort in the words found at Psalms 34:18 that assures us, " Jehovah(God's personal name) is near to those that are broken at heart, And those who are crushed in spirit he saves." So we can be comforted, by "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."
(2 Cor.1:3,4) And he promises that soon sickness, death, mourning,and pain will be no more.(Isa. 33:24; Rev. 21:4) Keeping your family in my thoughts and prayers at this very sad time.
