“ Sharon has been my friend for nearly 20 yrs and I will miss her. She was one wonderful lady, generous, loving, kind, with a great sense of humor. All who knew her loved her. My thoughts and prayers are with her husband Al, her brother Roger and the rest of her friends and family. Sharon, I'll meet you in that great mall in the sky.

“ Uncle Al,
I will miss my beautiful Aunt here on this earth~ As our loved ones leave us behind to live and go on with our own lives, I find some sense of comfort and peace inside just knowing that they are in heaven saving me a place to be with them once again.##imported-begin##Kimberly##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for the passing of Aunt Sharon. There are no words to describe all that the heart feels at a time like this. I know that she is no longer suffering, but rejoicing in heaven. I remember many memories during my childhood with Aunt Sharon. I always thought of her as a hip and cool Auntie that made me laugh and feel loved. She will always be in heart, and I love her very much.

“ I am thankful for the 18 years we had together as friends.

There is a huge hole in my heart.

I have been truly blessed just by knowing her. I am so thankful that our paths crossed all those years ago.

May she rest in peace.

Love forever.
