“ Sheryl, you will be my forever personal Angel. I miss you so much and I know how much you loved all of us as you told me that several times this past year. We were best friends as you kept telling me and you suffered way too much . Will always remember all the good memories from the day you were born. May you Rest In Peace now with your brother Ray and son Trenton.

“ Aunt Sheryl, you were truly one of the kindest sweetest people I've ever known. Your heart was full of love, you were always so kind and caring. I will miss your laugh & how funny you were. You supported and loved me unconditionally and you loved your kids so much. As they did you. You will forever be in our hearts. Visit us often, our sweet guardian Angel. Love you to the heavens and back. Our most heartfelt condolences to your children, Stacy, Cherise, Michael & Samantha. Xoxo May you Rest In Peace.

“ I did not know Sherry well but I had the honor of meeting her at a Thanksgiving gathering. I remember chatting with her about the best banana cream pie that she made and about how she canned veggies. I enjoyed our conversation and I could tell that she was a really genuine person. I'm so glad I have that memory of meeting Sherry. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
