“ My first memory of Shirley was many, many years ago when she was dating my cousin, Frank, who lived with our family. Frank was more like a brother to me so when he married Shirley she became my sister. I loved her as much as I did Frank.

I remember Shirley was so beautiful. Her clothes were right off the fashion magazine. Little did I know she probably made them herself. The one curiosity of her was when she would sit down she would cross her long legs and her toes always pointed down. I was probably in my teens and I had never seen anyone sit so elegantly. I tried it but my toes always pointed up. As hard as I would try I could never mimic Shirleys' poise.

To her credit I have heard only loving sentiments about her. Everyone loved Shirley and Frank. What a couple!

I will miss Shirley. She was kind, loving, beautiful and she dearly loved her family. This is a sad time for all of us who absolutely loved her.

One last note. She and Frank were our witnesses at my wedding. Missing you already, Michele LaDuke Ball
