“ Tina and myself(Eugene) wanted to express our condolences to you. I have many memories of coming to your house in Detroit. Going swimming, eating and getting in trouble. Mrs. Wohlfield always treated me extremely well. I remember her little Taco Bell dog, I think that was Bambi. She was the only one that was able to pick her up without a glove. I remember how well she treated her even after Bambi went blind. I always admired that. Not only did that rub off on Kevin, but myself also and my love for animals. Mrs. Wohlfield was at all of games when we played sports, I don't think she missed any. I will always think of her fondly. Love to Kevin, Jeff and Tom.

“ My first memory of Shirley was her love for animals. A love that is shared by her son, my husband Kevin. I just didn't realize how deep that love ran until the first Christmas I spent there and everyone brought their dogs! I think there were more dogs than people! If you're thinking about sending flowers a donation to the Humane Society or another animal charity would have made her very happy.
