This is Dee's missionary picture. He served in the Eastern States Mission. Other picture is Dee with his sisters, Sandra and Diane in front of our home in Midvale, Utah. Such great memories of a dear, kind, funny brother. Love and miss you.

I will dance with you again, my beloved Dee. Until then, you will be with me in my dreams, and I will be holding you in my heart throughout eternity. You gave with your whole heart, and what a huge heart it is. My life was blessed the day I met you, and then you continued to bless me for 25 more years. Thank you for the life we shared and will continue to share when the ties of this world let me come back to the shelter of your arms. I promise to live the best life I can without you beside me, but it will take every ounce of strength in me to do that, so please stay with me my dearest one, until I can again, be with you.
