“ We met 34 years ago - working at St. Ronald for 17 years together was a dream team job! Ronnie you taught me, through your example, to laugh and how to be a "gift" to others. Jan, with her soft touch, taught me patience, kindness, humility and strengthened my spirituality. Our friendship lasted even though we went in different directions. If asked who influenced your life the most - I would not hesitate to say - Sr. Ronnie & Sr. Jan - you were "my gift"###imported-begin##Lori Linkewitz###imported-end##

“ We remember Sister Jan as a creative and caring woman. We have a constant reminder of her talent and kindness in our home. She designed our wedding invitations and wedding candle. The candle is ever present in our home. We know that Jan touched and changed many lives and we are grateful that her path included a walk with us. Sister Ronnie you are in our thoughts and prayers as we know that Jan has been a constant companion in your journey as well.###imported-begin##Janice Geha and Paul Swaneck###imported-end##

“ My Dear Dear Ronnie:

There are no words today that can comfort you- no sayings to make the pain go away. Sister Jan is well loved and she will be painfully absent from all of the lives she touched.

This is part of God's journey in His life for Jan, and trust that this is part of God's journey in His life for you and all those she left behind.

All my love and prayers,

“ Dear Sister Ronnie & All of the Sisters,

Bonnie & I are unable to be there, but our hearts and prayers go out to all of you. We have all lost a sister that was a great gift from God. He gave her to us and now he has called her home. He has seen her great work and her dedication to him and has seen her suffering and has given her peace at last. We know that we will all be together again someday. Jan go with God.

Thank you Ronnie for being with her.

God grant her eternal rest.

“ Dearest Sr. Ronnie,
My heart is heavy with the news of the loss of our dear sister Jan. I know she and mom are dancing together free of pain in heaven and anticipating the joy we will all share when we are one day reunited. I look forward to that day, but today I am at a loss for words and the grief is great. Know that I am thinking of you with love and am so thankful for the friendship and care you have given Jan over the years. May you be lifted up by His great arms of love in this time of sadness.##imported-begin##Roni-Ann Deming##imported-end##
