“ Dear Cousin Stan and Family,
It is with great sadness, and many tears that I must write this condolence of goodbye to such a wonderful gentle cousin that you were. You were always laughing and had such a great heartfelt disposition as your father, My Uncle Walter! I will always and forever remember the times our family's got together and shared all our love and laughter for one another. The weekends, holidays, or just visits will be forever kept close in my heart dear cousin! Till we see one another again, all my love,

“ Dear Stan you were more like a brother to me than brother-in-law. I still recall the first time we met and you and Delores treated me like family. We had a lot of good times in the 61 years we were friends. I remember all the times we played cards until early in the morning while our kids slept on the living room floor. Love you, will miss you.

“ Oh, dear cousin my heart aches knowing you are no longer with us. We grew up as kids and kept in touch all these years. I fondly remember our trips up to Port Austin when we were youngsters and the many times our families got together for dinner. I will miss our frequent talks on the phone Stan. I will keep you in my prayers dear cousin. Richard Darlak

“ Cousin Stanley -- We shared such a special relationship that my life will be forever changed with you no longer in it. Our monthly breakfasts, our twice-weekly phone calls, our bus trips to the

I was sorry to hear of Stanley's death. Although, I, and my family moved from the Detroit/Hamtramck area many years ago, I have fond memories of our family visits, and of course, sharing times with my cousins. Barbara Drozdowski Mackey (daughter of Frank and Lillian Drozdowski)
