“ Sue, My thoughts have been with you and your family these past few days. I just wish I could have been with you. Remember, Sue, even though we are far apart I am always here for you anytime. We have been through a lot of difficult times in our lives but we have always been there to help each other out and to pick each other up. Love, Lynne###imported-begin###Lynne###imported-end##

“ Tom and family - We know how difficult this time is for all of you. We hope the wonderful memories you have of Mr. Berlin's life will supplant those of the past few weeks. Though we would have liked to have visited with you and given you our personal condolences, we understand and respect Tom's desire for privacy. Please know that our thoughts are with you.###imported-begin###Lori & Maurice Pogoda###imported-end##

“ Diane and family: So sorry to hear about Stanley. Want you to know you're in our thoughts and prayers. Tom and Sue, take good care of your Mom now through the lonely days ahead. Let all your good memories help pave the road to recovery. Be good to each other.
Our sincere condolences. Warm regards, Pat and Jackie (Peggy's
