“ We are saddened to learn of the death of your mother, Marie. She sure lived a long time and was robbed of her memory for part of it. We like to think she is fully restored of that and having a "neighborly" chat and catch-up with Virginia B about the old days on Lappin when there was lots of huge elm trees and kids could play and no one had a worry in the world about being shot. Remember the good times and keep them close to your heart. We think of Joe often and trust he is resting in peace.

“ Marie,

We were saddened to learn of the passing of your mother. She was a wonderful woman, kind and generous, and a great mother and spouse. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family at this time.
