“ Dear Faith and Family,
Please be assured of my prayers for your mom as well as you...
Stella is a saint now, happy and healthy and out of pain... she's now with God, her husband and so many of her friends.

I pray that you be gentle with yourselves as you grieve her loss in your own lives. Remember, she is still with you, watching you and loving you as ever.

*My prayers and best wishes,
Sister Judy##imported-begin##Sister Judy Zielinski,

“ Sorry Dawn and I are unable to attend the viewing or the funeral Mass, as I am up in Port Austin. My memories of Mrs. Cosky are many and pleasant, as she was one of my many surrogate Rolyat mothers. Growing up in that wonderful neighborhood, I, my siblings, and every post-war kid on Rolyat were blessed to be surrounded by great friends and their terrific parents. Mrs. Cosky was one of the nicest, and long after I moved out of the neighborhood, I always enjoyed running into and conversing with her at Masses, church fairs, or dinners. My Rolyat memories of the Cukrowskis, the Gilberts, the Kaczmareks, the Coskys, the Krzyckis, the Cipas, the Kollys, the Websters, the Jaskys, the Swirskis, the Blaczaks, and others will never dim, and I feel honored to have known and grown up with such wonderful people, all of whom contributed in some way, shape, or form, to the man I became. Mrs. Cosky was a saintly person in so many ways. Her life on Earth speaks for itself, and her future life promises further blessings. A terrific woman, and a terrific family.

“ To Mike, and his entire family.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I appologize for not paying my respect in person, tonight. I will be out of town.

I learned of Mrs. Cosky's pasing from the Cattlehurder fan out and website. I have already heard from three of the boys this morning, making sure everyone was aware of your loss.

All of our thoughts are of you and your family this morning.

“ *Marietta,
I have such fond memories of your Mom. Be thankful for all the wonderful years you had with her. In time those memories will bring smiles and laughter and not tears. She is in a much better place and is with your Dad. Love and peace to you, Bob, Brett, Gemma and the whole family. Love Linda Lee*###imported-begin###Linda Luxon###imported-end###
