“ I'm not sure how many of you remember me and my family, but the Pigulas lived 4 doors down from the Busch family at 6309 St. Aubin. I have twin brothers Michael & Patrick and my parents were Chester & Virginia Pigula. Also, Lorraine & Frank Andereski were my great aunt & uncle on my mom's side of the family. When I saw Mrs. Busch's picture and name, I thought that this can't be the same lady who baked my clown face birthday cake when I was 6 or 7? (The only reason I remember roughly when this was is that my Dad died when I was 7 and I remember he was alive when she made that cake.) What a long life she had!. I know that doesn't mean your sorrow is any less. I once read that a person isn't truly gone until every person they ever touched when they were alive is gone. I just wanted to let you know that even after all these years I still remember Mrs. Busch's cake and her and Mr. Busch sitting on the front porch watching all of us kids play tag or some other game once the street lights came on and we had to stay on our little block. All of you are in my prayers. - Mary Ann Pigula###imported-begin##Mary Ann Pigula##imported-end##

“ It is believed that those who have love in their life are fortunate and those who have love from many are rich. In that regard I think Mama Busch was one of the richest people I've ever known. Her thoughtfulness touched my family in many ways but there are a few that will always stand out in my mind. Upon hearing of the birth of my sons Mama Busch knitted beautiful baby blankets that comforted them for many years. I will always remember my boys dragging their blankies around the house and snuggling up to them at night. Each Christmas we all looked forward to her baking and I don't think I'll ever see a ginger bread man again without remembering Mama with a smile.##imported-begin##Michael & Julie Hantman##imported-end##
