“ I am a nurse that would take care of Stella while she received her chemotherapy. Stella was such a special lady and all the girls here at the office enjoyed seeing her. Stella had such a kind heart and gentle nature. She was always a joy to take care of. I remeber how she enjoyed watching movies and reading People magazine. Stella handled herself with such grace and I will always admire her strength and beautiful smile.##imported-begin##Katie Babcock##imported-end##
