“ I just heard today the news of Steve's passing...my sincere condolences to Stanley and Norma, Chrissie and Paul, and all the family. I worked with Michele at Sinai-Grace Hospital many years ago and remember Steve as being fun and fun-loving. We joked about being Polish princes and princesses. I can't believe he is gone so soon after losing Michele - although my first thought was that Michele must have needed him so much she called him Home. He always took such loving care of Michele and was so dedicated to her happiness and well-being. I'm glad the two of you are back together again, but sorry that I did not get the chance to say farewell... Rest in Peace.
Fondly, Rita Foley
