“ Dear Nancy and John. I cannot stop thinking of you and your family and your grief and loss. I wish I had a chance to meet him. People have said how sweet and nice he was. It's a shame we let our own lives get in the way of getting to know family. I'm sorry. I do love you, Nancy. You were my favorite babysitter. I am only a text or PM away if you want to talk. Debbie (Ditta) Marshall.

“ Dear Nancy and John, I have just heard the news about your Steven and cannot express how my heart aches for you at this difficult time. While I never had the pleasure of meeting him, I do know of his struggles in my conversations with you. Please know that my prayers are with you at this difficult time. May all your memories comfort you and your family at this time.

“ Rousseau family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Steven and I became coworkers this past May and I had the pleasure of getting to know him a little bit by training him a few times. Right away anyone could tell he was such a kind, gentle, and funny guy to be around. He will be missed dearly by all of us at work who got to know him over the past several months.

“ Dear Rousseau Family - I worked with Steven at G2. He was an incredible employee and we were proud to have him at our company. His dedication, intelligence, and dependability were recognized and applauded by all here.
He and I were in constant communication and I will miss working with him. Please know his family here at G2 will remember him always with the fondest memories. Prayers and deepest sympathies
