“ Aunt Val, Gail, Susie and Donna,
So sorry for your loss...today, especially one of the most difficult of all. I wish I was there to hold and hug each of you. Find strength in all who are with you today to celebrate his life. In your sorrow think of his joy is seeing Gary once again, his Mother, Uncle Ray and so many others who were waiting to greet him. You miss him terribly but one day he will welcome you with joy! Love,

“ Aunt Val, I had the priviledge of being flower girl at your wedding..so Uncle Steve and you have been part of my life from the beginning...always a smile, always twinkling eyes, the unmistakable laughter...seeing you both on the dance floor at all the family weddings, gliding along so beautifully better than dancers in the movies. God meant for you two to BE. He will be so missed. Have your daughter hug you very tight for me! Love,

“ I am so saddened to hear of Uncle Steve's passing. I remember when Janell was born and how he called her his little "Dark Eyes" and he was forever known to her as "Uncle Dark Eyes". I am honored to have been his neice and will miss him greatly. As the Uncles and Aunts leave this earth one by one, I imagine them all up there in that big bowling ally in the sky waiting for each new player to arrive. Blessing to all. Love, Elaine, Sean, and Dark Eyes (Janell).##imported-begin##Elaine (Kurzyniec) & Sean Rosekrans##imported-end##

“ At my very first meeting of the Kurzyniec clan, Jack took me to a family wedding. We were only 17 and I was nervous about meeting everyone. But, Uncle Steve took me by the hand and led me to the dance floor, saying "you can have your first dance with me". He eased all my fears with his gentle acceptance. I will not forget.

Aunt Val you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dearest Aunt Val and family,

Our deepest sympathy for the loss of our dearest and most loving Uncle; your wonderful husband; devoted father and adoring grandfather. Life will not be the same without his enthusiasm for life and powerful drive to serve others. May his life and struggle be an example of the courage we would all be better for having ourselves.

May he be with the Almighty Father in perfect peace; and playing baseball with Gary and our father.

“ Aunt Val, Donna, Gail, and, Susie-

Oh, I am so sad to hear of Uncle Steve's passing. He fought this battle after his fall for so long...but in the end, I still think he won. Heaven is quite a prize!

I have so many, many memories of Uncle Steve - from Kurzyniec family picnics and endless family baseball games there, Christmas Day nite visits taking Grandma around for visits to Aunt Julie and Uncle Ray's house, and having the pleasure of seeing Aunt Val and Uncle Steve pop in too. listening to all the old stories, just sitting around the kitchen table drinking tea and having those wonderful nut rolls. I so remember the first time he came to St John's Hospital for blood work, and having the priviledge of drawing his blood myself. every time I saw him after that, he would always talk about that. smiles.

The one thing I will always remember about him was his very warm, loving smile and greetings. He always came up to me with a warm hug. 2 words that describe him...warm and loving person. I will so miss him.

I know my family will never forget that despite the weather and the sad circumstances, that he came to Carl, my brother's funeral, last February. that had such an impact on me. Aunt Val and Uncle Steve came. so much love.

I so wish I could be there to support all of you, like you did for our family last year. Know that I will be there in spirit with you. So many HUGS to all of you in this time of grief.

Love you much
