“ There are so many memories of my childhood friend. She came to visit me in Pennsylvania and we went to NYC to see Phantom of the Opera. After a night on the town, it was late 1:00 in the morning, pouring rain, we decided to see the Statue of Liberty. Hardly anyone was there and I can still see the water streaming down her face and she was so happy for that day.

I remember when I was young always going to her house and visiting. She always had something good to eat. I will miss her laugh and smile. May she rest in peace in heaven with all her family members. I hope my Dad was one of the people to greet her at the pearly gate. She truly will be missed.
