“ How does one shoulder the loss of someone so dear to you that you never thought would not be there to laugh with and share life's stories with? Our exceptionally beautiful Susan Nigro was this one in a million lady, friend, wife, mother who graced my life with a soft spoken gentle style that can't be compared to anyone I've ever met . How many people have you ever met that could listen and laugh or cry to your life stories and tell her own unique life and times ? Susan aka "Dakota Sue" was all of this and much more. Adjusting to life without this amazing beauty has been extremely difficult, it's impossible to recall how many times Susan crosses my Mind and almost reach for my phone because I want to chat or just say hello and find out how's she's doing. My memories of Susan are fortunately filled with picture perfect clarity with sounds of her voice , her laughter, her smooth comfortable voice cadence. Is Dakota Sue special? You'd better believe it!!! Love and miss you Susan & Louis so deeply.

“ Offering our very deepest condolences for the passing of Susan Nigro. Words alone can not fully express the deep sadness we feel during this most sad time. 45 wonderful years of knowing this special lady wasn't enough , not for me , not for anyone who knew how unique Susan was. Susan's God given gentle style and easy going manor we're only 2 of the special qualities which enabled this Lady to achieve success in anything she did. These qualities enabled Susan to raise her children without ever raising her voice or moving away from that gentle style that Susan was best known for. That unique style was her gift to friends who felt that special connection to her, always smiling , always up beat , always ready to laugh at a joke , or listen carefully if you had a serious conversation with her. Our most special Susan was everyone's special Susan . Not once , did I ever hear Susan complain about her limitations due to her MS ! Not once! That wasn't Susan , the Susan we all knew , just made the necessary adjustments to comply with the cards of life she was dealt, almost intuitively knowing that any vocal complaints would steal valuable moments away from what she HAD control over . A special gift? God given I say. I personally will mourn Susan's passing for these reasons and so many more , 45 years of memories, each one special, each one uniquely Susan , each one I will forever remember for always and forever. Rest now beautiful Lady , wonderful wife of my great friend Louis Sr. , mother to Lisa and Louis and their families.
