“ I golfed with Sue on Wednesday mornings and I always looked forward to seeing her every week. She was such a sweet and funny woman. She gave each and every woman that she golfed with the same respect and friendship. She was well loved and has been missed by all of us.

“ My Deepest Sympathy to The Oakley Family.. I will Miss Susie Dearly.. She was always one of My Favorite People to work with and She was My Little Plant Lady too... We use to talk alot about plants and flowers and even got a few from her... Susie will now be Your Guardian Angel in Heaven..She will be Her Smiling Self Again , Watching and Protecting her Family again like she did before. She will always be with you in your Hearts and Minds.. I will always cherish her friendship and kindness..Thoughts, Prayers and Hugs to You All !! 🙏❤️👉💙😊
