“ There are so many memories to mention here. Let's just say she was a wonderful sister, daughter, wife, grandmother, aunt, and friend. She was always the one that made everyone smile and think happy thoughts. Her memory will live on in our hearts and minds. We came home to be with the family for a few days before we had to return to WV. There wasn't a time when I felt she was not still with us. In typical Sue fashion she would show up to comfort and make me feel better. I hope she continues to visit us all and remind us how much fun it was to have her around. Sue, I love and miss you.

*I'm sitting here in my room, looking at your picture.
Wondering why you couldn't be a part of my future.
Uncontrollable tears stream down my face,
while my heart beat starts to race.
Asking God why he took you from my life,
it was more painful than stabbing me in the heart with a knife.
I still needed you here
you were the one to make everything so clear.
you are apart of me and I am apart of you when you died a part of me died too.
I never knew how hard it was to loose someone you love until the day you went to heaven above.
Even though I can't see,
I know your up there watching over me.
I miss you more and more everyday and all I can do is pray.
In my heart you shall forever remain.*

I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ May the Hearer of prayer give the family the comfort needed during this time of grief (Psalm 65:2). God is a refuge for us in times of distress. My wish is that family and friends find relief in the promises of life again for our lost love ones like Suzie, found in His word during this time of sadness.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Adam and all of Suzie's family. Suzie will never be far from us. God got an Angel, and we lost one of the most caring, kind, and loving women I have ever known. I will never forget how we met, and then to find out she was my neighbor. We became instant friends. I could call Sue if I was having a bad day, and go to her house, and lay with her on the couch, both of us in our Pj's, and no matter how bad I felt she always made me feel better. I am truly sorry to Adam, and the kids. In the famous words of Sue.. You know I will watch over everyone eh? Love you Suzie... Forever in our hearts.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Adam and all of her family. The world lost a wonderful, loving, fun person. God takes the good and leaves the jerks. Suzie you always went above and beyond for everyone. No matter what you had going on you always had time for your friends.. You are and will always be so dearly missed. I have a hole in my heart for a dear friend and confidante and a sister. Love and miss you Suz ?

“ My sincere apologies go out to all of Sue's family and children during this difficult time. I am broken up about the news of my free-spirited, kind hearted and loving friend from junior high and high school. I will forever remember the fun times and laughter we shared growing up together at school and on weekends...Not to mention that bright smile of hers that could light up the room. Rest in peace Susie! We will always love you.

“ I wanted to offer my sympathies to the family my name is demisha and just this year i have lost 2 family members and 2 very very close friends so i completly undertstand your pain. There are times when there is nothing anyone can say to make you feel better because the reality of it is that the loved one is no longer here, and what TRULY brings me comfort when i feel this way is to REMEMBER the promises in the bible of Acts 24:15 where it speaks of a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. I know your family does not know me but i am a sister who shares your pain and i would like to invite your family to a special bible talk that is going to be given all over THE WORLD on April 7, 2013 it is entitled 'DOES DEATH END IT ALL'? This talk will be given at all kingdom halls of jehovahs witness and it's free to the public i hope your family will be able to attend to hear words of hope and comfort....see any jehovahs witnesses for time and location or see (www.jw.org)

“With everything she had on her plate, Sue always found time to help a friend. She was the most selfless person we have ever known. Sue strolled into our lives one day and never left. She became a constant in our life from that day forward. We never realized how much we depended on her for so many things and we are sure that those who knew her feel the same way.

As we look around our house, we see that every room was touched by her. Sue was notorious for just stopping by, out of the blue, with a gift for us or our home. She expected nothing in return except our friendship. She always found the time to take care of her family and friends. She was a "Whirlwind"!

Our thoughts and prayers go out to her family, friends and anyone else who's lives she touched. We will miss her always and we are so thankful to have known her.

Rest in Peace, Mama Sue.

“My deepest sympathies to the family. May the wonderful memories you've shared together comfort you and also remembering that God is the God of all comfort and he will comfort us through all our tribulation.(2Corinthians 1:3,4) For he is near those who are broken at heart and He promises that soon all the tears of sadness, death, pain, and mourning will be no more.(Psalms 34:18;Revelation 21:3,4) May this bring you comfort during this very difficult time.
Sincerely, Glenda

“ From the day she first came into this world, Sue was a very happy go lucky kind of person. She was a ray of sunshine, the treasure at the end of every rainbow.

Sue had a real zest for life and wanted to take everybody along for the ride. She loved to make people laugh and did a great job of making it happen!

Sue was the goofball of the family and everybody loved her for it! She could make you laugh even if you didn't feel like laughing.

Sue was a wonderful wife & an amazing mother and grandmother. She and Adam each had 3 children from previous marriages and together they did a marvelous job raising all 6 of them. The sun rose & set on her 4 grandchildren and they will miss her very much.

Sue was very strong and instilled that into her children. She taught them to always do the right thing and to be there for anybody who ever needed them...just like she always was.

Family, friends, acquaintances, and perfect strangers - she was there for everybody. It didn't matter who you were, if you needed something, she was there for you.

Family was everything to her. She was a mother first, and then as the kids got older she was their best friend.

She didn't hesitate to give her advice as she truly felt that she knew best. That's what she wanted for everybody...the very best!

There are really no words to describe the affect she had on everybody. We all have our own memories but one thing I can say for sure is that everybody who knew Susie, truly LOVED Susie!! We will miss her dearly.
