“ Last Oct. Pat brought Suzy to our house for a hay ride. We had so much fun that day. Suzy was so happy to spend the day with her godson Jim. God bless Her. Love, Tony & Janet Distelrath

“ Sue was a dear, longtime friend, going all the way back to high school. We had alot in common, including family heritage, love of animals, working in the public sector and creative cooking. She had a wicked sense of humor, and a giggle I will always remember. We could talk about nearly anything. I really appreciated her friendship and love through the years. She had a big heart and was a loyal friend. My sympathies to everyone who loved her.
