“ My precious Suzie Q, words cannot express what you are to me nor can they describe how you battled this dreadful disease Scleroderma for the last 14 years. Scleroderma certainly affected your body but not your will nor your heart! Never complaining, always with a smile on your face, and always thinking of others before yourself! You even fought thru the pain of a broken collarbone to attend our 40th Wedding Anniversary this past February. Your with our Mama, and siblings Leonard, Archie, Wayne, and Betty in Heaven. I am sure you all are getting the party started and, hopefully, we will all be together again one day. Until then, you are in our hearts and thoughts and no one can ever take that away from us! Love, your older Sister Pat. Me too Sue, Love Joe. Kisses and Hugs forever!! XOXO##imported-begin##Pat and Joe Marino##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to hear the news of Aunt Sue passing away. Aunt Sue is only 7 years older than me. I have childhood memories of her. I remember how she had the most beautiful smile and the prettiest long blonde hair that she would spend time brushing.. Also on a trip to great Grandma Bushas house in Ubly I remember her coming out of the bathroom with a all white face. That was the first time I knew what Noxzema face cream was. I also remember visiting and her taking the time to show me the pet racoon who lived in the tree in their backyard.

She was truly a lovely person. I am sorry I have not seen much of her later in life. My thoughts and prayers to her husband and daughters. I know heaven is a better place with her in it. Love to the family.##imported-begin##Laura Concannon(Larry Osantowski's Daughter)##imported-end##

“ Dear Osantowski Family,

I was sorry to read about Suzanne, I think we are related, my grandparents were John & Tillie Grifka from Ubly, Mi. I remember EllaMae when I was a child and going to Aunt Suzie's farm. I am the oldest member of the family (74)and my Mother talked about the family members living in the Thumb Area.

You have my sympathy.

“ Aunt Sue will truly be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. I was blessed to have her as my confirmation sponsor and of course as my Aunt! She was such a strong person and always put the needs of those she loved before her own self. We love her always!###imported-begin##Janell Plocinik###imported-end##
