“ I knew her as Ms. Savage, my 3rd grade teacher at Fillmore Elementary. One of my all time favorites, she had such a sweet nature and kind heart. She made her students feel so special. Thanks to her inspiration, I have 30+ years in the teaching profession. My condolences to her family.

Sincerely,
Mary-Jo Germain (Impellizzeri)

“ Suzanne is my cousin on her mother's side of the family. I was named after her. She is the kindest, soft spoken, loving, caring person I know. She has set the bar high. I love her passion for God's people. She truly led her life as the hands and feet of Jesus. She has taught many by example of how to live this temporary life. I know she is in the loving arms of our creator. Until we meet again. Love and prayers to her entire family. I am here for you. ❤️❤️

“ Sue was my cousin who was by my side when my own Dad's casket was lowered in the ground. It was the hardest part for me, as it was the final gesture of the funeral process. I wish I could be there, but God has me writing an icon for a week in Mackinaw City. Know that my prayers are with you all as you move toward a new life without your wife, mom, sister. She was always a bright light for me. God Bless!

“ Jeff and Pam Gagne
Bob and Sue were great neighbors that we knew for 20 years before we moved. Sue was always so friendly and I remember having her over to my house to learn how to make cards. I remember many summer nights visiting on their front porch.

“ Suzanne , was our neighbor for over 35 yrs she always was involved in noble causes . She would bring many things over to our house to sign . Her heart always seem to favor those less fortunate . Sue (as we knew her) and my wife Beverly formed a neighborhood prayer group and they always went away encouraged . The world is a little darker because her light went out . God rest her soul . Our condolences to her lovely family . Love Gary & Beverly Hundlo
