

Tarcisio Divid Vivian

December 11, 1931 - December 10, 2023

Tarcisio Vivian passed away on December 10, 2023, after a brief illness at the age of 91. Tarcisio was born in Detroit on December 11, 1931, to Davide and Teresa Vivian. He is the beloved husband of the late Lea. Loving father of Diane (Kevin) Johnston, Daniel (Patricia) Vivian, and Linda (Edmond) Olejniczak. Very proud Nono of Anthony and Laura Johnston, Katie and Kelly Vivian, and Edmond and Joseph Olejniczak. Tarcisio was predeceased by his sister Kathleen (the late Egidio) Garbo. Dearest brother-in-law of Vilma (the late Armen) DelPup. Instate Friday 10 AM until 11 AM Funeral Mass at St. John Fisher Catholic Church 3665 Walton Blvd. (e. of Squirrel Rd.), Rochester Hills, Michigan.

He leaves behind a legacy of passion, dedication, and a life well-lived. A man of many interests, Tarcisio had a love for hunting, fishing, golfing, and bowling. His high game of 298 was not only a personal achievement but also a source of pride for him.

Professionally, Tarcisio was the owner and president of Vivian Building company. He was also a proud veteran, having served in the United States Army. Longtime member of the Venetian Club, Cordenons Club and OPC. In his retirement he was fond of using his skills to build beautiful cutting boards and stained-glass work. An avid sports enthusiast, he found lifelong joy in passionately watching his beloved Detroit sports teams compete. He leaves behind cherished memories for his children, grandchildren, and friends, who will forever remember his kindness, generosity, and the love he shared.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Thaar Care Foundation dedicated to providing funding for mental health counseling.
