“ Teresa & I were best of friends since 7th grade. We hung around with Steve & his male friends -a lot. Steve didn't seem to mind his younger sister & her friends tagging along like a lot of older siblings do. We drifted apart & then drifted back again as adults. I remember her coming to our family cottage near port austin many times as teens & I remember going to their family place in Canada (before it sank :). Later on in life, I remember my sons being on their snowmobile's in New Baltimore and 4-wheeling with them too. Teresa never complained. I pray she's with her parents & has no more pain. Thank you George for being her husband for all these years "in sickness & in health". I know she loved her sons too. Love you Teresa.
